

A day at the beach

It's a warm summer's day, perfect to go to the beach.

I love the sand in my toes,

The salt in my hair,

and the sound of the waves crashing together.

Children play in the ocean and Splash each other with the cool water.

I sit back and laugh.

Night falls,

but not before the most beautiful sunset.

The big blue sky has turned into a peachy pink and a bright orange.

I look out at the horizon and I see the sunset's reflection, glimmering on the sea water.

I feel relaxed at the sight of it.

I close my eyes, and listen to the seagulls and feel the Breeze blowing through my hair,

And I think to myself...

What a wonderful world!

Chloe Niutta

Age 11

Sacred Heart Primary, Mildura