

In my eyes

I hear birds singing in the wind,

I smell the plants, what a wonderful scent!

I see ducks floating past,

I see people skiing, wouldn't that be fun??

I see the trees swaying in the wind,

I hear the water passing by,

I feel happy and calm.

I smell dead fish...YUCK!!!

I feel the warmth of the fire on my cold toes,

I see people playing in the river,

I watch the sun set at night,

I feel the cool breeze hitting my face as I sleep,

I see the leaves rustling in the wind.
