

Lock 11

One regular day, we went down to Lock 11.

It was a very placid and serene day.

I saw the pelicans skimming across the water as if skiing behind a boat.

I felt the wind blowing on my neck.

I saw a duck going under water and ten seconds later it reappeared on the surface.

I heard the birds chirping like exquisite music.

I saw the sparkling water flowing by.

I saw a chick in an old dead hollow tree.

This place is so relaxing.

I wish I could go there again.
