

Rain

I'm sitting at my window waiting for the rain to stop

I hear as the rain lands with a thump on my roof top

I taste the clean freshness that water gives

I see the rain trickle down my window like a tear drop

I feel the rain as it lands on my face and slowly falls to the ground

The rain stops.

Then I think and can't wait until the rain comes again.

Emily Robinson

Year 3 / 4

Sacred Heart Primary, Mildura