

TheKookaburra

You perch on some of the highest branches,
Your laugh rings through the bush and up the winding river,
You fly from treetop to treetop, each glide better than the last,
your camouflage sometimes makes you hard to see,
You are always looking for food;
Worms, spiders, insects and centipedes.

You're a kookaburra – one of Australia's native birds.

Connor O'Callaghan

Age 12

Sacred Heart Primary, Mildura