

The Murray River

Under the bridge there lays the river,
Stand in the murky water and it will give you a shiver,
On the bank the water is passing by,
Then on the land, the trees are about to die,
Water, Water is all that they need,
But all that they have are some dry weeds,
Then as I look down what do I see?
I see someone in the river who looks just like me.

Claudia Gray
Age 12
Sacred Heart Primary, Mildura